

THE GAZETTE.

SATURDAY EVENING, MAY 29.

GET CLOSER TOGETHER.—Two men met who at first sight hated each other. There was a mutual repugnance between them. Neither would ever consent to be introduced to the other, or remain in his company under any circumstances. Both ate at the same table where perhaps twenty others dined, but they were always at opposite ends. At some fancied grievance, one day, one threw a dish at the other's head and it required the intervention of friends to prevent what would have otherwise been a tragical scene. Things went this way for months, the hatred of each growing more intense, and must have culminated in serious trouble to both if it continued much longer. Circumstances, however, threw them together in such a way, one day, as to compel them to recognize each other. Immediately the scales of prejudice fell from their eyes, and each saw in the other what always had existed—congenial spirits—and they became ever after, and are to this day, firm and true friends.

Thus it is that we so frequently find men opposed to each other with no sufficient reason—simply blinded by prejudice. There is magic in the contact of human bodies. The closer you get the plainer you see the good qualities of your fellow-men. But stand off at a distance, and like the man who mistook his brother for a robber in the gloom of the evening, your fancy is invested with every imaginable evil with regard to him. Come closer.

The Montpelier Female Humane Association, chartered by the Legislature of Virginia and the Circuit Court of Orange County, proposes, by a series of Grand Gift Concerts, to establish and endow a "Home for the Old, Infirm and Destitute Ladies of Virginia," at Montpelier, the former residence of President James Madison.

The Association is under the control of eight trustees, six of whom are elected biennially by the stockholders and two appointed by the Governor of Virginia.

Governor's Office, Richmond, July 3, '74. It affords me a pleasure to say that I am well acquainted with a large majority of the officers of the Montpelier Female Humane Association who reside in the vicinity of my home, and I attest their intelligence and their worth and high reputation as gentlemen, as well as the public confidence, influence and substantial means liberally represented among them.

Alexandria, Va., July 8th, 1874.

My personal acquaintance with a majority of the gentlemen controlling the Montpelier Female Humane Association and the reputation of all of them enables me to commend them as fully entitled to the confidence of the public. No act or representation inconsistent with honor and integrity need be apprehended in the conduct or representations of these gentlemen.

U. S. Judge East. Dist. of Va.

ICE DEALERS.
Notice to Ice Consumers.
I desire to call the attention of consumers of Ice to the fact that I have on hand, and offer for sale during the coming summer, from 1000 to 1500 tons of Ice, which I will deliver to any part of the city at

LOWEST POSSIBLE RATES.
This Ice was collected in good condition from the Pond south of the Canal Basin; was frozen entirely from rain and spring water; is free from mixture with vegetable matter; and it would be difficult to assign any reason why it should be inferior in purity to Ice gathered from the rivers of the North.

Ice cut from this Pond is now used at the residence of Col. C. F. Suttle and John B. Dainford, esq., also at the Mansion House and City Hotel, with entire satisfaction to all.

In assuming to carry on more largely the business pursued in a small way for many years by my father, I respectfully ask a continuation of the patronage which he enjoyed, with such additional trade as my increased efforts may seem to merit.

Proprietors of Hotels and Restaurants, Confectioners and other consumers of considerable quantities of Ice will find my PRICES VERY LIBERAL.
Orders promptly filled by applying at either Depots at Appich's Confectionery and 87 N. St. Asaph street.
